AMENDED AND UNOPPOSED REPORT OF RECEIVER'S SPECIAL COUNSEL REGARDING FEES, COSTS AND MOTION AUTHORIZING PAYMENT
(AMENDED AS TO 3.01(g) CERTIFICATION)

This Amended and Unopposed Report and Motion is filed by Guy M. Burns, with the firm Johnson Pope Bokor Ruppel & Burns, LLP, as Special Litigation Counsel (“Special Counsel”) hired by the Receiver and as approved by this Court on July 1, 2020.

By this filing, Receiver’s Special Counsel reports on the final fee and cost calculation and the payment of Special Counsel’s fees and costs from settlement funds that are expected to be received in March 2024.

Special Counsel was contacted by the Receiver in the summer of 2020. After discussions and a preliminary review, the Special Counsel proposed to represent the Receiver on a contingency basis against DLA Piper LLP (US), Fox Rothschild, LLP and Paul Wassgren (hereinafter the “Lawyer Defendants”). Special Counsel sent the Receiver a proposed engagement letter on June 18, 2020.

On June 26, 2020, the Receiver filed a motion with the Court attaching the proposed fee engagement letter agreement with Special Counsel, which set forth the proposed contingent fee schedule. In summary, the schedule provided for fees ranging between 10-33%, depending upon the amount of any recovery and the timing of the resolution. The schedule also provided for an additional 5% fee in the event of an appeal. Essentially, an earlier resolution triggered a lower contingency fee.

On July 1, 2020, the Court entered an Order approving the hiring of Special Counsel and in its Order this Court confirmed the contingent attorney fee that was proposed in the letter of June 18, 2020. Special Counsel then filed suit against the Lawyer Defendants in Los Angeles, California.

The case against the Lawyer Defendants was subsequently settled in an amount of $44 million. As was reported to the Court, that settlement was allocated 50% to the Receiver's claims against the Lawyer Defendants, and 50% was allocated to the claims of certain investors who had filed a putative class against the Lawyer Defendants. Accordingly, 50% of the $44 million settlement ($22 million) was allocated to the Receiver's recovery and is subject to the contingency fee payable to the undersigned Special Counsel. Under the previously Court-approved contingency fee, Special Counsel was entitled to a fee of 20% of $22 million. The total fee is calculated to be $4,400,000.

On January 5, 2023, the Receiver filed a motion for the approval of the settlement with the Lawyer Defendants. That motion contained a review of the fee obligations and reported that Special Counsel for the Receiver had, at that point, advanced or was expected to advance approximately $25,000 in costs. On May 15, 2023, the Court issued its Final Order approving the settlement, including the requested fees and costs.

Thereafter, an appeal to the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals was taken by Robert Armijo as to portions of the Final Order. This appeal triggered an additional 5% fee ($1,100,000) for Special Counsel. After settlement negotiations with Mr. Armijo, the Armijo appeal was dismissed on January 11, 2024. Prior to the dismissal, the Receiver negotiated a settlement of certain claims both for and against Mr. Armijo and his corporate entity, Joseph Financial, Inc. (hereinafter the "Armijo Settlement"). As a result of the Armijo Settlement, Special Counsel for the Receiver agreed to waive its entitlement to an additional 5% ($1,100,000) fee and to also give a credit to the Receiver with an additional $118,000 toward the Armijo Settlement. The terms of the Armijo Settlement were reported to the Court in a filing on November 13, 2023. The Armijo Settlement, including the Armijo credit, was approved by the Court on November 15, 2023.

After the motion of January 5, 2023 estimating Special Counsel's cost at $25,000, Special Counsel has continued to expend costs for the case including the cost of a notice publication program, as well as continued mediation costs, including costs associated with the resolution with the Armijo claims. The total costs expended by Special Counsel are $37,512.09, a copy of that Bill of Costs is attached to this Report and Motion as Exhibit 1. Of this cost amount, $7,500 was advanced by Special Counsel to local California counsel for expected Court costs. Of that amount, $1,250.42 remains unused, and the final invoice to the Receiver includes a credit for $1,250.42.

The Special Counsel has rendered a final invoice to the Receiver in the amount, after all costs and credits, of $4,318,261.67. A copy of the final invoice is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. This invoice will become due when the Receiver collects the final settlement funds which are expected to be received in March 2024.

Special Counsel requests this court enter an order authorizing the Receiver to make payment of $4,318,261.67, in full and final payment of all obligations from the Receiver to Special Counsel, at such time as the Receiver collects the settlement from the Lawyer Defendants'.

AMENDED CERTIFICATION UNDER LOCAL RULE 3.01(g)

The undersigned counsel has conferred with the Receiver, who in turn conferred with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") prior to filing this Amended Report and Motion and the SEC has no objection to the requested Order.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on February 19, 2024, I electronically filed the foregoing with the Clerk of Court by using the Court's CM/ECF system, thereby serving this document on all attorneys of record in this case.

Dated: February 19, 2024

Respectfully submitted,
